Date/Time of Incident :	22 March 2007 at 0155 hrs
Location of incident :	01 ° 41.2'N 101°27.9'E
Area Description :	Port Dumai, Indonesia
Name/Type of Ship:	Kourion /Crude Oil Tanker
Details of Incident :
Three robbers armed with knives boarded the tanker from the port quarter and entered the accommodation. One of them was barefooted, wore a red T-shirt and mentioned the words 'keep quiet' in English to the 2nd Officer of the tanker. The master of the tanker raised the alarm, made announcement over the PA system, and mustered the crew members. The robbers jumped off the tanker from the port quarter, and fled away in a speedboat. A thorough search of the entire ship was conducted and no item was found missing.
Reported by :	ISC Focal Point (Singapore)

Comments by ISC :	The last time an armed robbery incident took place in the same location was two months ago on 22 January 2007 when one man was found on board an oil tanker and another attempted to board. Both jumped overboard and escaped when the duty officer raised the alarm and alerted the crew. Masters are advised to maintain vigilance at all times. A more detailed report will be available in ISC's Report (March 2007).
